From Beginning to End

Each school year has a beginning and an end; the goal of the yearbook staff is to document the memories that fall in between. Sunset Lake, Fall Festival, Week of Prayer, and many more events are important to all of us. In June the school year will finish, but we hope the friendships will never diminish.

Academics

Academics. Classes. Learning.

From registration to final exams our main focus at Auburn is going to class, doing homework, studying and absorbing information. Although for some this can be stressful, it shouldn't be. The teachers at AAA try to get involved and help each student learn at his or her own level. Auburn is committed to making the learning process easier and more enjoyable.

Organizations

Organization: Association or Society

Someone once said, "Music to me is a means of expressing one's ideas to another person." Wind Ensemble, String Ensemble, Choir, and Sylvan all witness through their beautiful music. But not all witnessing is through music. Rainier Vista, Direct Connection, and Associated Student Body work all year to bring the whole school closer together.

Academy Life

Life at AAA

Daily life at the Academy consists of going to classes, making friends, growing physically and spiritually, and learning not only from teachers but also from each other. Village students drive from home to school, while dorm students walk the sidewalks, but no matter where we live, we eat in the cafe, hang out in the hall, go to work, and do our homework.

Athletes in the Making

The year began with football, followed by volleyball, soccer, basketball, and ending with baseball. Sports are an extra-curricular relief from every day academy life. Whether it is an intramural or team game, AAA likes to get involved. Walla Walla, PUC, and Loma Linda are all places where we represent our school. Without sports we would not have that opportunity.

Senior Activities

Seniors...

At the end of each year a class leaves the school; the oldest, been-there-the-longest, most mature, class -- the seniors. The seniors are quickly approaching the rest of their lives. They bonded through all four years at AAA: Sunset Lake, Fort Flagler, senior trip, sandbagging, earthquakes, floods, and fires just to name a few. Hopefully they will always look back on their time here with good memories.

School Activities.

Christmas, finals, banquets, Getting to Know You, and Student Week of Prayer came and went; new people arrived, skiing began, basketball receded, and a large number of students left to go on trips during spring break. . . . Although we're busy going places, some-times we just have fun bonding with peers and classmates at AAA.

Nelson Hall Fire

November 17, 2003

First known as South Hall, Nelson Hall was a wood frame structure built in 1946. The name was changed when the brick facade was added in 1963. --photo taken 2001 by J. McKey

The day after the fire, Nelson Hall was a burned out shell with many smoke detectors still screaming. The fire continued to flare up for days. --Photo by J. McKey

The fire started in the basement about 5:30 in the evening on November 17, 2003. This photo was taken just after 9:00 pm. More than sixty firefighters fought the three-alarm blaze which was completely extinguished only after the walls were torn down a few days later. --Photo by J. McKey

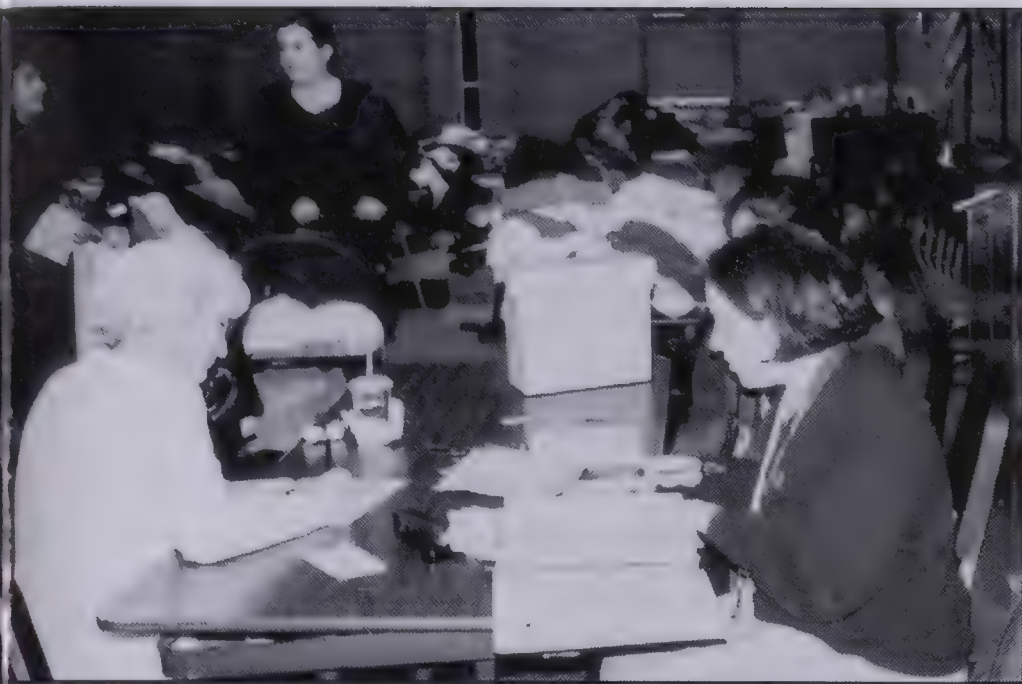

After the fire started, the girls were sent to the cafeteria where everyone was accounted for. The girls of Third West--Angela Ehrlich, Ashley Gabel, Sondra Ruffner, Akiyo Lee, Carin Ojanen, Tamara Jaynes, Lindsay Smith, Katie Campbell, Jeanelle Gates, Elizabeth Dant, Lisa Wu, You Joung (Evet) Yoon and Alyna Mitchell--gathered to pray as fire raged in their dormitory. --Photo by J. Most dorm girls lost everything they owned in the fire. The next day, the Red Cross distributed stuffed bears and gift bags, and the Muckleshoot Tribe--remembering that AAA students had given their children Christmas gifts in the 1960's--donated $15,000. --Photo by J. McKey

Soon after the alarm sounded, Mr. McKey ran down the smoke-filled halls bashing through locked doors with a heavy fire extinguisher to be sure everyone was out. The girls later thanked him with with a plaque. --Photo by J. McKey

Signs of the Times

Taking a cue from many states, President George W. Bush signed into law a federal "do not call" list. People can request to be on the list and avoid calls from many telemarketers.

Get your rest before you get behind the wheel in New Jersey. The state has become the first to have a law against drowsy driving. Under the law, a driver who causes a fatal crash can be charged with vehicular homicide if there is evidence the driver was sleepy.

A homesick man thought it would be cheaper to fly himself home as cargo, but officials said he paid about the same as a first-class ticket. Charles McKinley shipped himself in a crate from New York to his parents' home in Dallas in a 15-hour journey that had officials concerned about the lack of security.

National/International News

A Michigan man jumped into the Niagara River and went over the Canadian side of Niagara Falls—and lived. Kirk Jones was fined $2,260 for his October plunge but received a $100,000 circus contract.

The U.S. $20 bill got a makeover in the continuing attempt by the U.S. Treasury Department to thwart counterfeiters. The most dramatic change was the addition of peach and blue to the traditional green and black bills.

Ekaterina Dmitriev married Russian cosmonaut Yuri Malenchenko while she stood at the Johnson Space Center in Houston and he was aboard the International Space Station. A life-size cutout stood in for the groom on the ground.
